

Environmental Assessment Intern

Primary Focus Will Include:

- Assists with research, development and documentation of projects
- Assists with analysis of environmental impacts as assigned
- NEPA for Transportation Projects
- WA State Environmental Review Process (SEPA/JARPA)

Preferred Qualifications and Skills:

- Pursuing a major in environmental engineering, environmental sciences, natural resources sciences, or urban planning
- Coursework or interest in Ecology, Biology, Fishery or Forestry, Historic Preservation, Archaeology, Environmental Planning, Public Involvement, or Urban Planning with a focus on environmental
- Previous internship experience
- Problem solving and analytical skills
- Works well in a team setting
- Proficiency with AutoCAD, BlueBeam and/or similar program

Essential Responsibilities:

- Assists project team members with various support tasks.
- Conducts basic research and data collection.
- Maintains records, collections and files related to specific projects.
- Assist in the development of presentation materials and reports.
- Performs other duties as assigned.

Minimum Qualifications:

- High School/GED or equivalent
- Must be currently enrolled in an accredited post-secondary degree program

For additional information on this position, please reach out to HNTB Recruiter Amanda Bergmann at abergmann@hntb.com or 816-527-2103.